QUTE-EUROPE and QUANTIki are seeking for a motivated person with good computing skills and some background in quantum information. On a basis of ~600 EURO/month for a period over a year, you will help us to

- improve the user-friendliness of Quantiki
- implement new features
- add content and promote the site on the web
- join relevant databases of Qute-Europe and Quantiki

The Quantiki team is ageing and seeking young blood! We are looking for a committed individual who can work independently and potentially would become a part of the Quantiki team afterwards. You can be based anywhere.

Computer skills required: GNU/Linux administration, basic knowledge of MySQL, Apache, PHP.

You can apply by emailing your CV and a brief summary of your ideas and vision for Quantiki to [burgarth \[at\] gmail \[dot\] com](mailto:burgarth[at]gmail[dot]com) by November 21st
