We are happy to announce the opening of a two-year postdoctoral position in quantum information theory. The successful candidate will work in the interface of quantum nonlocality and the axiomatization of quantum mechanics with Profs. Although based in Vienna, the postdoctoral researcher will enjoy frequent collaborative visits to Barcelona. The funds for this position come from the FQXi project "Towards an almost quantum physical theory" (see http://fqxi.org/grants/large/awardees/view/__details/2015/navascués [2] for a project description), and include a travel budget for the postdoc.
