PhD Stipends, Fall 2017

A number of attractive PhD stipends in Mathematics are available at the University of Copenhagen, The Villum Centre of Excellence for the Mathematics of Quantum Theory. The starting date for the stipends is in the fall of 2017. Candidates are expected to have obtained a Master's degree, or equivalence thereof, before starting.

The stipends run for 3years, which is the duration of the PhD program. You can find more information about the PhD program and apply online on our homepage:
